Re: Carper for Senate (ID No. C00349217)

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please accept this letter as the reply of Carper for Senate (the "Committee") to the January 30, 2001 letter issued by Jonathan B. Horton, Reports Analyst, Federal Election Commission regarding the Committee's 30 Day Post-General Report (the "Report").

Mr. Horton's letter indicates that the Committee failed to disclose on Schedule A the contribution of John J. Hewes as reported on the Committee's November 4, 2000 48 hour notice. Please be advised that Mr. Hewes' contribution was properly reported on Schedule A of the Report under the name "John J. Hewes, Jr."

Mr. Horton's letter indicates the Committee failed to report the full amount of contributions received from Messrs. Koppes and Starrels. Please be advised that subsequent to the filing of the relevant 48 hour notices, the Committee received reattributions of the contribution amounts from each individual. Accordingly, the $2,000 contribution reported as received from Mr. Koppes on October 26, 2000, was reported on the Report as properly attributed to Seth C. Koppes ($1,000) and Molly Koppes ($1,000) due to a November 6 reattribution. Similarly, the $2,000 contribution reported as received from Mr. Starrels on October 27, 2000, was reported on the Report as properly attributed to Andrew J. Starrels ($1,000) and Dorinda Starrels ($1,000) due to a November 9 reattribution.

Mr. Horton's letter further indicated the Committee failed to provide complete identification of individuals contributing in excess of $200. I believe Mr. Horton's letter refers to William E. Little, Jr., for which the Committee did not have an address at the time the Report was filed. However, in accordance with the Committee's requirements, the Committee secured Mr. Little's address and supplied this information on its Amended 30 Day Post-General Report filed on January 31, 2001.
